SCOUT ME IN!

As of February 1, 2019, all of the BSA's character building programs - Cub Scouting, Venturing, and Scouts BSA - have welcomed girls to participate. Girls ages 5-10 in Cub Scouting meet in Dens with other girls and do family activities together with girl and boy dens. Scouts BSA, the path to Eagle Scout for youth age 11-17, has all-girl troops. Venturing for teens 14-20 has been co-ed since its inception in 1998. All three programs provide hands-on activities to build confidence and leadership skills and prepare youth for life!

Recipients demonstrate strong leadership and commitment to service that reminds us what can be accomplished when the values of Scouting are applied in everyday life.

Daniel Webster Council, BSA Golden Doe Award

Individual Cub Scout Packs, Scouts BSA Troops, Venturing Crews, and Exploring Posts from around the state are invited to honor one woman each year who goes above and beyond to support Scouting with the Golden Doe Award. This year's class of award recipients will be recognized at the reception.
