In 2019:

- Approximately 6.5% of eligible Scouts earned Eagle, totaling 61,353 Eagle Scouts.
 - Eagle Scouts, and the volunteers they led, completed 8,575,780 hours of work for Eagle Scout service projects. The average was 139.8 hours per project.
 - 173 Scouts earned Eagle in the Daniel Webster Council – about 5.3% of those eligible.

Why I Didn't Earn my Eagle

- Didn't manage my time well – ran out of time
- Too busy with school and other activities
- Too busy with family activities
- Got a girlfriend/boyfriend
- Got a car
- Got a job

4) What is required to become an Eagle Scout?

Eagle rank requirements compared to Star and Life rank requirements

Rqmt #	Category	Star or Life	Eagle	Remarks
Eligibility	Maximum Age	None	up to 18 th birthday	includes the day you turn 18
1	Active participation	Star: 4 months Life: 6 months	6 months	understand your Scoutmaster or Unit Leader's definition of "active"; a good topic to bring up at your Life Board of Review
2	Scout Spirit	Past and present	Past, present and future	5 character references required for Eagle (6 if you have a job)
3	Merit Badges	Star: 6 total, 4 "Required" Life: 10 total, 7 "Required"	Eagle: 21 total, 13 "Required"
4	Leadership	Any one of 16 positions	Any one of 15 positions	"bugler" does not qualify for an Eagle leadership position
5	Community Service hours	Star: 6 hours Life: 6 hours w/3 conservation related	No minimum
	Your role	Participant	Project Leader	4 phases: Conception, proposal, planning and execution
	Approval authority	Unit Leader	District Eagle Board	Project approval for Eagle rank requires an appearance before your District Eagle Board (does everyone know what district they're in?)
6	Unit Leader Conference	Unit Leader	Unit Leader
	Statement of ambitions and life purpose	n/a	Written statement attached to Eagle rank application
7	Board of Review	Members of your troop committee (people you're familiar with)	Members of the District Eagle Board (probably strangers to you)
Other	How to request rank advancement when requirements are completed	Informal communication (verbal, electronic) with troop Advancement chairperson	Eagle Rank Application form, filed with Daniel Webster Council

5) Time Management

Time Management (with focus on the Eagle Project)

Project Phase	Time Management Tip	Remarks
Conceptual	Start Early	If you have a good, qualifying project idea in mind beforehand, you'll be ahead of the game by weeks, if not months
Approval	Have a Realistic Plan	A goal is not a plan. If you leave achieving Eagle rank to the whims of fate there's a greater chance that you'll find yourself scrambling like mad, and turning an experience that should be satisfying and rewarding, into a nightmare
	Seek Advice from Those Who Know You Best	This can be the hardest thing for a young person to do but seeking trusted advice can help you "keep it real" and save you from biting off more than you can chew
	Keep the Scope of Your Project Realistic	The Eagle project is the only requirement for Eagle Scout that you have control over. With regard to Requirement 5, size doesn't matter so be wary of the temptation to build the Golden Gate Bridge
Execution	Delegate!	This is a "must" to demonstrate that you showed leadership
	Break the Project Down	Treat your project as a series of smaller, manageable projects
	Have a Realistic Timeline	Give yourself enough leeway to adjust to the inevitable stumbling blocks and delays
	Don't Let Perfection be the Enemy of Good Enough

6) Why an Eagle Project and How Do I Pick One?

- What is the purpose of an Eagle Project?:

To show leadership and give back to the community.

6) From the Eagle Scout Service Project Workbook

- “In addition to providing service and fulfilling the part of the Scout Oath, “to help other people at all times,” one of the primary purposes of the Eagle Scout Service Project is to demonstrate or hone, or to learn and develop, leadership skills.”
- Related to this are important lessons in project management and taking responsibility for a significant accomplishment.

6) How Do I Choose a Project?

- What would YOU like to do?
- Are you already involved with an organization?
 - A sports team or league?
 - A church group or other youth organization
 - A town service group?

If you are very interested or passionate about something you are more likely to succeed.

6) Other Ways to Find a Good Project

- Contact local organizations for ideas. Wearing your uniform can help!
- It is a good idea to have a few different ideas/choices for the organization to choose from
- Just remember, this is YOUR project!

6) Other Ways to Find a Good Project

- Use the Web. Inspiration comes from many sources.

7) What is an acceptable Eagle Project

Goal: to foster an understanding of what constitutes an acceptable project, and why.

- An Eagle Project must
 - Benefit a civic organization
(religious institution, school, local or world community)
 - Provide a significant service to the community
 - Benefit more than one person, one family
 - Present an opportunity for planning, development and leadership for you
 - Demonstrate your leadership.
 - Be performed after becoming a Life Scout
(and after approval of EBoR)

What is an acceptable Eagle Project

- Eagle Projects may not be:
 - Only a fundraiser
 - Routine labor
 - Repair & maintenance of existing structure, lands
 - Performed with another Eagle Scout candidate
 - Not a joint project
 - Another Eagle Scout candidate could be providing labor in your project, under your leadership; & vice-versa
 - For the BSA, its councils, districts, units or properties.

What is an acceptable Eagle Project

- Examples: Yes or No?
 - Replace the back deck and stairway at the VFW
 - Yes! -- Not just replacing a few boards here & there
 - Clear indicator: will need a building permit
 - Straighten & repaint a wrought-iron fence around the cemetery
 - No! -- maintenance, consisting of routine labor
 - Clear indicator: existing structure modified
 - Transform the back area of a church that has a seasonal, wet land into a permanent, defined pond with well-defined walking path, and landscaping... Yes or no? (next slide)

What is an acceptable Eagle Project

- Yes
 - If wet-land ill-defined, and after DES approves, a reshaping/digging/clear-edging
 - .. and putting a full, clear walkway, not just a path that dead-ends at the wet-land area
 - .. And you provide necessary signage, possibly a bench to sit and rest, relax, meditate -- all net-new areas
- No
 - If just clearing some brush around the wetland
 - If trail around it already exists, and just clearing it up
 - All above are maintenance work, not net-new areas

#8 – Getting Organized for Your Eagle Project

Who Needs to Get Organized?

1. You, the Eagle Scout Candidate
2. Not your parent(s)/guardian(s)
3. Not your coach/mentor/advisor
4. Not your Scoutmaster

10) The Eagle Coach

What is an Eagle Coach?

- An adult who advises and counsels an Eagle candidate through the process of developing and executing the Eagle Scout Service Project

10) The Eagle Coach

An Eagle Coach Can:

- Provide information and answer questions
- Identify barriers and if needed, guide you around them
- Guide you to a BSA compliant project of value to the community.

10) The Eagle Coach

An Eagle Coach is involved throughout the entire process.

10) The Eagle Coach

Where Can You Get One?

From your unit, or you can suggest your own but.....

May NOT be from your immediate family.

10) The Eagle Coach

CANNOT approve your project, or grant permissions.

An Eagle Coach must be a registered Scouter and have Current YPT training.

Eagle Scout Service Project Workbook

Congratulations on earning the rank of Life Scout. You are among approximately 55,000 youth who year after year, achieve that important milestone. As you ponder the meaning behind the Life patch, you are encouraged to think about the symbol of the heart. Historically in Scouting, it was a fitting symbol of health and fitness, but it also represents the spirit of caring and giving that is behind the Eagle Scout service project.

Service to other people is what Scouting is all about. In many ways, your service project reflects who you are as a youth leader. Your result should be of significant impact in your community to be special, and should represent your very best effort.

Your proposal, the logical first step, should emphasize your intention to give leadership to others through proper planning and development. Communicate with the beneficiary often to ensure the project meets the organization's needs once it is completed.

We encourage you to seek guidance from your unit leader and project coach as you need help. Your Eagle Scout Service Project Workbook, much like a compass, will help navigate your way to a life of service as a proud Eagle Scout.

Where to Start? Page 3 – Requirement 5

Page 3: Eagle Scout Requirement 5 has 14 Parts

1. While a Life Scout,
2. plan,
3. develop, and
4. give leadership to others in a service project helpful to
5. any religious institution,
6. any school, or
7. your community.
8. (The project must benefit an organization other than the Boy Scouts of America)
9. the organization
benefiting from the effort,
10. your unit leader and
11. unit committee, and
12. the council or district
13. before you start.
14. You must use the Eagle
Scout Service Project
Workbook, ..., in meeting
this requirement.

What your project must do:

- Provide service to a beneficiary:
 - Religious institution
 - School
 - Community
 - Broadly defined
 - Not meant to exclude commercial institutions that benefit the community, e.g., a park on privately-owned land but open to the public.
 - District Advancement Committee may consider cases where an individual in need can affect a community.

What your project must do:

- Provide opportunity for you to
 - plan, develop, and lead a significant project
 - Learn leadership skills or improve or demonstrate leadership skills you already have.
 - Learn/demonstrate project management
 - Take responsibility for a significant accomplishment

What your project must not be....

- Routine labor or maintenance
- Exclusively or primarily a fundraiser
- Shared by multiple Eagle candidates
- Performed for the benefit of the BSA, or any Council, District, or Unit, or property.
- Required to take some minimum number of hours; no one can impose such a requirement.
- Unsafe (including the “Sweet 16 of BSA safety” and adherence to Youth Protection policies)
- To benefit a commercial enterprise

Four Main Parts of the Workbook

- The Project Proposal
- The Project Plan
- Fundraising Application
- The Project Report

Also included:

- Information for Scouts and Parents/Guardians
- Information for Unit Leaders and Coaches/Advisors
- Information for Beneficiaries (near the end)

The Project Proposal

- Must be approved by the District Eagle Board before execution, including any fundraising, begins
- Must show that, in the judgement of the board, the project meets 5 tests:
 1. Sufficient opportunity to meet the requirement
 2. Appears to be feasible
 3. Safety issues will be addressed
 4. Action steps for further planning are included
 5. On the right track with a reasonable chance for a positive experience

Fundraising

- Fundraising for Eagle projects has its own application and its own rules, separate from those for Unit Fundraising activities
- Fundraising applications for Eagle Scout projects are approved by the District Eagle Board (not the DWC office), often at the same time as the project proposal
- Not required if no fundraising is needed for a project (e.g., a beneficiary-funded project)
- See DWC guidelines for Crowdfunding at the Life to Eagle Forms Page
<https://nhscouting.org/advancement/life-to-eagle/life-to-eagle-forms/>

The Project Plan

- Is a tool to help you to meet the part of requirement to plan and develop your project
- Increases the likelihood of a successful project
- Should be reviewed with your coach/advisor and beneficiary
- Is not approved or signed
- Can evolve as the project proceeds

The Project Report

- Fill in after other work on your project is complete
- Bring to your Board of Review
- Must be signed by
 - You
 - The Beneficiary
 - Unit Leader
- Also complete the one page “Eagle Scout Project Summary Form” at <https://nhscouting.org/advancement/life-to-eagle/life-to-eagle-forms/> and bring it to your Board of Review

- Where can you find the Eagle Service Project Workbook?

Pop Quiz Answer

- Where can you find the Eagle Service Project Workbook?
- <https://www.scouting.org/programs/scouts-bsa/advancement-and-awards/eagle-scout-workbook/>
- Via a link on the DWC “Life to Eagle” page, nhscouting.org/life-to-eagle

12) Eagle board first visit project approval

*Goal: Once the Scout has an Eagle Service Project concept, & with the help of an Eagle Coach/Mentor, emphasize conversion into a Project Proposal (use Workbook). This section covers what to expect at the visit during the Eagle Board Project Review Proceeding.

- Scout completes project workbook proposal
- Scout requests review of project based on individual district guidance found at www.nhscouting.org
- Requests should be made 7-14 days prior to scheduled review dates; Scout appointment may be pushed to following month if agenda is full
- Prior to appointment, Scout ensures all approval signatures are obtained in workbook

12) Eagle board first visit project approval

- Scout introductions
- Scout is asked to describe his/her project with a focus on how he/she will lead the project
- Committee asks questions for clarification
- Scout advised this process may seem interrogative, but it's to ensure success at the final Eagle Board of Review

12) Eagle board first visit project approval

- After project is presented, Scout/advisor steps out for committee to deliberate approval
- Scout/advisor invited back and given decision
- Once approved, Scout is made aware of the need for additional approvals prior to changes to the project (this is to protect Scout from being asked to enhance project/services and for beneficiary to get what was agreed)
- Scout is asked to keep records of all approvals and subsequent communications with assigned committee contact

14) Secrets for Success – Next Steps

Goal: Review some important ideas after Project Proposal & pass along some simple, key advice for project success.

- Project proposal accepted – likely with a general outline – now to ‘do the project’
- Planning is most significant next step
 - Multiple plans to make from the proposal
- Plan your materials – in detail
- Plan to include ‘extras’ – water, nourishment
- Plan for possible alternatives
 - Rout a sign, stencil a sign, plaque for sign...

14) Secrets for Success – Next Steps

- Fundraising
 - After EBoR approval
 - Guess what it requires – planning!
 - Planning makes fundraiser organized, look responsible, and thus, willing donors
- Maintain a project log
 - Take pictures – a great way to incorporate family
 - Dates, people, hours-per-person
 - Notes on what occurred, when, how resolved
 - For the project write-up

14) Secrets for Success – Next Steps

- Project Changes
 - Try to resolve without changing the project
 - Consult Eagle Coach/Mentor for advice if stuck
 - Minor change required:
 - Contact Eagle Board liason, typically can approve
 - Major change required:
 - Contact Eagle Board liason, EBoR members will be consulted
 - The original approval is a binding contract between you, beneficiary & Eagle Board. A major change requires all to agree.

14) Secrets for Success – Next Steps

- Project Changes (continued)
 - Major change required: (continued)
 - Scout, parent, ScoutMaster/Crew Advisor, Eagle Coach/Mentor are not allowed to approve a project change.
- For any change:
 - Log the change, add to project write-up
 - Attach copy of approved modification from the Eagle Board to the project write-up.
 - The EBoR members likely to differ from project proposal to Eagle rank review

15) The Eagle Board Rank Review

Goal: review what the Eagle Board considers necessary to earn the Eagle rank.

- Upon completion of project (to the satisfaction of beneficiary in accordance with proposal) Scout completes project report section of workbook including:
 - summary, changes, leadership, financials, hours, photographs
- Scout submits a completed Eagle Scout Rank Application www.nhscouting.org to the Daniel Webster Council Service Center in Manchester

15) The Eagle Board Rank Review

- DWC verifies Scout has met all requirements and then forwards paperwork to District
- Scout is contacted by District to attend a final Eagle Board of Review along with advisor or scoutmaster (non-parent preferable)
- Scout may be asked to submit electronic workbook, all approvals associated with project and confirmation of excess funds donated to beneficiary

15) The Eagle Board Rank Review

- Scout is asked to talk about self (family, school, hobbies, ambitions)
- Scout is asked to talk about scouting history and experiences
- Scout is asked about leadership during project, challenges encountered during execution and success of the project
- Scout/accompanying adult asked to step out for deliberation as decision must be unanimous by committee

15) The Eagle Board Rank Review

- Scout may be given a thought question during deliberation session as relaxation technique
- Scout/accompanying adult invited back to learn decision
- If approved, Scout presented with letter confirming Eagle rank date along with paperwork process

19) Eagle Time Extensions

- As of Jan 1, all time extension requests are submitted to Council
- Qualifications are listed in the Guide to Advancement in Chapter 9.
- Forms needed are also in the GTA
- It can be downloaded at scouting.org

19) Time Extensions and Covid 19

- As of now, the effect Covid 19 has had on the ability of Scouts to work on and complete their Eagle Scout rank can be a condition for requesting a time extension.
- The BSA and Council is constantly reviewing the Covid situation and makes rules that affect Scouting activities.
- Other situations that qualify for a time extension are listed in the GTA

19) The Process

- If a Life Scout believes that they will need time past their 18th birthday to complete their Eagle Scout requirements due to SITUATIONS BEYOND THEIR CONTROL, they need to file for a time extension.
- Examples of these can be found in the GTA.
 - A disabling illness or injury
 - A family emergency
 - A natural disaster.

19) If You Think You Might Need an Extension

- Read sections 9.0.4.0 and 9.0.4.1 VERY CAREFULLY

Form 11.2.0.0 (a downloadable, fillable PDF) must be filled out completely and submitted to:
