Scott G. Christensen, CLU, ChFC, CFP, CLF

Scott is the Managing Partner of the Northern New England offices of Northwestern Mutual, a position he has held since 2004. The organization is headquartered in Manchester, NH and is comprised of nearly 50 financial advisors and college interns. Scott's role is to grow the distribution of Northwestern Mutual in New Hampshire, Maine, Vermont and Northeastern Massachusetts. The office has roots that date back to 1883 when Northwestern Mutual began their Northern New England operations in Portland, Maine. His organization is recognized as having the most industry credentials per advisor in Northwestern Mutual.

Scott is a native of Chicago. He attended the University of Illinois and graduated with a degree in Business Administration/Marketing in 1984. He entered the financial services industry with Dean Witter Reynolds in 1987. His career with Northwestern Mutual started in 1990. As a financial advisor, Scott built a substantial practice and ran an office of 13 advisors before moving to New Hampshire.

In the community, Scott is the Board President of Southeast NH Habitat for Humanity and is on the Board of Advisors of StayWorkPlay NH. Scott sits on the Board of Directors of the Daniel Webster Council, BSA in NH and is former board president. He is also a trustee for the State of NH Retirement Security Board.

Scott is married to his college sweetheart, Kathy and they reside in Portsmouth, NH. They have three daughters, Carly, Sara and Abbey. In leisure time, Scott enjoys skiing, golf and travel.
