Eagle Scout

Lilly Tullio was an active member of Troop 33G in Jaffrey, NH from 8th - 12th grade. She served as her troop's Senior Patrol Leader for 4 years, and as Quartermaster for 6 months.

For her Eagle Project, she worked with Scouts to build 31 Screech Owl nest boxes. She then taught a 4th grade class about screech owls and their loss of habitat. Each child painted an owl box, and then the boxes were hung up in the woods.

Lilly just completed her freshman year at Oberlin College in Ohio, where she plans to double major in Environmental Science and Geology. This summer, she'll be volunteering at Vässarö Scout Camp in Sweden!

Honoree Mark Bodin

Mark Bodin has served as President of Savings Bank of Walpole (SBW) since July 2018, after joining the bank in 2010 as Senior VP/CFO.

He is passionate about organizational and staff development and is especially proud that SBW has been named a “Best Bank to Work For” by American Banker Magazine for eight consecutive years. Believing businesses have a broader role in their communities, Mark launched SBW’s successful Community Engagement Program to deepen the bank’s local impact while enriching the employee experience under its “staff first” model.

His leadership has earned recognition, including the 2023 NH Community Banker of the Year Award from the NH Bankers Association, and inclusion in NH Business Magazine’s NH 200 list of influential leaders.

Under Mark's tenure, Savings Bank of Walpole has received several prestigious awards, such as the Clarence DeMar Business Champion Award, Monadnock United Way Summit Award, NH Businesses for Social Responsibility's Partners in Innovation Award, and the NH Businesses for the Arts' Dyed in the Wool Award.

Savings Bank of Walpole, a $790 million community bank, is committed to serving the Monadnock Region of New Hampshire and is affiliated with the NH Mutual Bancorp Holding Company alongside Merrimack Savings Bank, Meredith Savings Bank, and NHTrust.

Before joining SBW, Mark spent 16 years as COO and/or CFO of the Student Conservation Association, a national nonprofit offering service opportunities to youth on public lands and in urban communities across all 50 states.

Mark's civic involvement includes roles as Trustee and Treasurer of Cheshire Medical Center, member of the Keene

Family YMCA's Development and Community Impact Committee, founding member and Workplace Resources Committee Chair for the Monadnock Area DEIB Coalition, contributor to the Keene Multicultural Center, and advisor to Kurn Hattin Homes for Children, where he previously served as Board President. His volunteer work focuses on youth, education, and economic development.

Mark lives in Andover, Vermont with his wife Maddy. The couple relocated from New York City in 1993, embracing the philosophy to “work where you live”—a decision that has served them and their two grown children well.
